

Work Health and Safety

Policy

Pony Club SA recognises the importance of proper management of work health and safety. The most valuable asset to the business is its paid and voluntary workers, whose health and safety ranks equally with all other financial and operational considerations.

It is the responsibility and aim of Pony Club SA to minimise the risk of injury and disease to paid and voluntary workers and other persons, by adopting a planned and systematic approach to the management of work health and safety and providing the resources for its successful implementation and continuous improvement.

Pony Club SA will endeavour, through the regular review of its systems, to strive for continuous improvement to bring about an ongoing improvement of work health and safety performance, with the aim of eliminating all unwanted work-related hazards and work-related injuries.

Pony Club SA aims to comply with all current relevant South Australian Work Health and Safety legislation, Codes of Practice and Australian/New Zealand Standards.

All persons who undertake paid or voluntary work at Pony Club SA have responsibilities for observing work health and safety requirements and to take care to protect their own health and safety and to avoid adversely affecting the health and safety of any other person.

A breach of this Work Health and Safety Policy may result in disciplinary action being taken.
